Hey Ladies!

I would like to invite you all to join my online Guitar Hero tour group. I understand that being parents' means that we have limited time so all activities are optional. This is just for fun and to meet new people. Please read the below ad, posted to the Guitar Hero website for more information. Please help me make this new group a success by joining.

If you are a Mom and enjoy playing guitar hero, or know of a Mom that plays Guitar Hero then this is the tour group for you! All skill levels are welcome and it is absolutely not necessary to play every day, week or even month. Play as you like and show support for the growing numbers of Moms playing Guitar Hero.

The new tour group exclusively for Moms is now underway. We're called Moms That Rock, you can find us at:
http://www.guitarhero.com/tour\_groups/247283

This group has been organized for all Moms' that rock it out on Guitar Hero, at all levels of play. Once we have enough members I will start organizing some online tournaments. Most tournaments will be open exclusively for members so make sure you join the tour group if you want in on the action.

Once we get ourselves established we will branch out and organize some friendly tournaments between us and the "DAD" groups in a battle of the sexes. There has been a lot of support from the rest of the community so I am confident that we can get some great matches set up.

Sign up at the above URL, send me an e-mail, or send me a Private Message through the website for more information.

Mother's Day Madness Tournament is May 11, 2008!

I have organized a special online Mother's Day tournament that can be played from the comfort of your own home. All you need is an internet connection, an online account and guitar hero for one of the consoles with online play capabilities, i.e. Xbox, PS3, and Wii.

Space is limited so sign up fast. Times vary based on level of game play. If you need assistance with setting up an account just shoot me an e-mail.

Prizes will be awarded to the top player!

About the Tour Group Leader

For those of you that don't know my alter ego is xara in the Guitar Hero (GH) community. I have been playing GH since it first came out, GH1. I am what you might say, addicted to GH and have endured hand injuries as a result, but still I press on. I have met a lot of wonderful people, and some not so wonderful, through the online community. I wanted to start this tour group for two reasons. One to give Moms in the community the resource to play with other adults at their maturity level. And two when I first joined the online community I joined a tour group that was a highly ranked group, The Untouchable Gods of Rock. But what I started noticing was that some of the smaller groups offered their members much more than just status. I decided it was time to leave and to rally the Moms in the community together.

I have since sent out a number of recruitment letters to various players and I am hoping to get some additional members. I'd like to acquire 10 members before setting up matches with the other groups. But this could really be a lot of fun. Eventually I would like to set up some league play as well, similar to a bowling league. Again, all optional for members.
